

Why do you think it is alright for people to call you if you don;t want to hear from them. It's time that everyday citizens have rights as do criminals in our states. I am now getting marketing calls on my cell and that gets expensive.